FORUM index 1992-96

General

Advertising and publicity
Evaluating trade promotions 3/1992 p. 12
Promoting exports to Europe – Part II: Using trade fairs and advertising 2/1992 p. 16
Promoting exports to Europe – Part I: Using product literature and sales trips 1/1992 p. 10

Chambers of commerce
How chambers can generate income to expand their trade services 2/1994 p. 10

Correspondence
Marketing in Europe: know the business customs 4/1992 p. 10

Environment and trade
Introducing the ecolabelling concept: experience of Colombia 3/1995 p. 8
Meeting eco-requirements for export: example of Indian textiles 3/1995 p. 12

Evaluation
Managing training evaluation in trade promotion 4/1994 p. 4
Evaluating trade promotions 3/1992 p. 12

Export costing
Cost management: key to competing in foreign markets 4/1994 p. 31

Export financing
Setting up an export credit insurance agency 3/1996 p. 4
An innovative approach to export financing 4/1993 p. 4

Fairs, exhibitions
Promoting exports to Europe – Part II: Using trade fairs and advertising 2/1992 p. 16

Import operations
Importing inputs for export production 2/1996 p. 16
Market-oriented public procurement systems 3/1995 p. 24
Measures for ensuring quality conformance in imports 2/1992 p. 22

ITC services
New ITC Mission Statement 2/1996 p. 4
Setting ITC's technical cooperation priorities 3/1995 p. 4
ITC's 30th Anniversary: special section – Statements and messages at the Commemorative Session; Trade and sustainable human development: collaboration between UNDP and ITC; ITC: into the future 4/1994 p. 8
ITC's 30th Anniversary: special section – Message from ITC's Executive Director; Officials through the years; ITC: how it began in 1964; Principal ITC developments over 30 years; ITC in action: some examples; The past and the present 3/1994 p. 10
Market information at your fingertips 4/1993 p. 12

Least developed countries
Least developed countries: basic information for export marketing 4/1993 p. 8

Legal aspects of trade
The Uruguay Round: new approach for the textiles and clothing sector 4/1995 p. 3
Market access for goods: A Uruguay Round summary for developing country exporters 1/1995 p. 4

Market research techniques
Analyzing international demand for your country's products 2/1996 p. 24
Market research for your export operations: Part II – conducting primary market research 1/1995 p. 16
Market research for your export operations: Part I – Using secondary sources of research 3/1994 p. 22

Marketing
Tropical fruit products: a well established market 3/1996 p. 10
The new ISO 14000 series: what exporters should know 3/1996 p. 16
Expanding international market for rubber products 3/1996 p. 26
Trends in the international spice trade 2/1996 p. 14
Preparing for your business negotiations 2/1996 p. 20
New developments in the international coffee trade 1/1996 p. 4
Exporting furniture: getting the packaging right 1/1996 p. 8
Selling to China: which import channels 1/1996 p. 12
Imports play a key role in U.K. toy sales 4/1995 p. 14
Negotiations for export business: elements for success 4/1995 p. 20
Dynamic markets for fruit juices in Asia 4/1995 p. 24
Introducing the ecolabelling concept: experience of Colombia 3/1995 p. 8
Meeting eco-requirements for export: example of Indian textiles 3/1995 p. 12
A promising market for fruit juices: central and eastern Europe 3/1995 p. 16
Quality requirements for textiles and clothing in Europe 2/1995 p. 4
Marketing leather footwear: suggestions for new exporters 2/1995 p. 10
Poland: export prospects for developing countries 2/1995 p. 17
An export marketing plan for small companies 2/1995 p. 22
Market access for goods: A Uruguay Round summary for developing country exporters 1/1995 p. 4
Market prospects for dehydrated and dried tropical fruit 1/1995 p. 14
Market research for your export operations: Part II – conducting primary market research 1/1995 p. 16
Marketing technical consultancy services 1/1995 p. 22
Cost management: key to competing in foreign markets 4/1994 p. 31
Trade efficiency: key role of business information 3/1994 p. 4
Market research for your export operations: Part I – Using secondary sources of research 3/1994 p. 22
Helping small and medium-size firms to enter export markets 2/1994 p. 4
Ensuring quality in spice exports: example of India 2/1994 p. 14
Handicraft exports: some suggestions for successful marketing 2/1994 p. 16
Tropical nuts: strong demand in the United Kingdom 2/1994 p. 24
Fruit and vegetable exports: new EC quality inspection rules 1/1994 p. 22
Dehydrated vegetables: a market to watch in the future 1/1994 p. 26
Least developed countries: basic information for export marketing 4/1993 p. 8
Market information at your fingertips 4/1993 p. 12
New marketing opportunities in the Russian Federation 4/1993 p. 18
Multinational generic promotion: a cost-effective approach 3/1993 p. 4
Promoting intraregional trade: a strategic approach for developing countries 3/1993 p. 14
Leather goods: attractive exports for developing countries 3/1993 p. 22
Rubberwood: an export that conserves the environment 2/1993 p. 4
Quality management systems: guidelines for export companies 2/1993 p. 10
Preparing for export marketing 2/1993 p. 16

FORUM index 1992-96

General

Advertising and publicity
Evaluating trade promotions 3/1992 p. 12
Promoting exports to Europe – Part II: Using trade fairs and advertising 2/1992 p. 16
Promoting exports to Europe – Part I: Using product literature and sales trips 1/1992 p. 10

Chambers of commerce
How chambers can generate income to expand their trade services 2/1994 p. 10

Correspondence
Marketing in Europe: know the business customs 4/1992 p. 10

Environment and trade
Introducing the ecolabelling concept: experience of Colombia 3/1995 p. 8
Meeting eco-requirements for export: example of Indian textiles 3/1995 p. 12

Evaluation
Managing training evaluation in trade promotion 4/1994 p. 4
Evaluating trade promotions 3/1992 p. 12

Export costing
Cost management: key to competing in foreign markets 4/1994 p. 31

Export financing
Setting up an export credit insurance agency 3/1996 p. 4
An innovative approach to export financing 4/1993 p. 4

Fairs, exhibitions
Promoting exports to Europe – Part II: Using trade fairs and advertising 2/1992 p. 16

Import operations
Importing inputs for export production 2/1996 p. 16
Market-oriented public procurement systems 3/1995 p. 24
Measures for ensuring quality conformance in imports 2/1992 p. 22

ITC services
New ITC Mission Statement 2/1996 p. 4
Setting ITC's technical cooperation priorities 3/1995 p. 4
ITC's 30th Anniversary: special section – Statements and messages at the Commemorative Session; Trade and sustainable human development: collaboration between UNDP and ITC; ITC: into the future 4/1994 p. 8
ITC's 30th Anniversary: special section – Message from ITC's Executive Director; Officials through the years; ITC: how it began in 1964; Principal ITC developments over 30 years; ITC in action: some examples; The past and the present 3/1994 p. 10
Market information at your fingertips 4/1993 p. 12

Least developed countries
Least developed countries: basic information for export marketing 4/1993 p. 8

Legal aspects of trade
The Uruguay Round: new approach for the textiles and clothing sector 4/1995 p. 3
Market access for goods: A Uruguay Round summary for developing country exporters 1/1995 p. 4

Market research techniques
Analyzing international demand for your country's products 2/1996 p. 24
Market research for your export operations: Part II – conducting primary market research 1/1995 p. 16
Market research for your export operations: Part I – Using secondary sources of research 3/1994 p. 22

Marketing
Tropical fruit products: a well established market 3/1996 p. 10
The new ISO 14000 series: what exporters should know 3/1996 p. 16
Expanding international market for rubber products 3/1996 p. 26
Trends in the international spice trade 2/1996 p. 14
Preparing for your business negotiations 2/1996 p. 20
New developments in the international coffee trade 1/1996 p. 4
Exporting furniture: getting the packaging right 1/1996 p. 8
Selling to China: which import channels 1/1996 p. 12
Imports play a key role in U.K. toy sales 4/1995 p. 14
Negotiations for export business: elements for success 4/1995 p. 20
Dynamic markets for fruit juices in Asia 4/1995 p. 24
Introducing the ecolabelling concept: experience of Colombia 3/1995 p. 8
Meeting eco-requirements for export: example of Indian textiles 3/1995 p. 12
A promising market for fruit juices: central and eastern Europe 3/1995 p. 16
Quality requirements for textiles and clothing in Europe 2/1995 p. 4
Marketing leather footwear: suggestions for new exporters 2/1995 p. 10
Poland: export prospects for developing countries 2/1995 p. 17
An export marketing plan for small companies 2/1995 p. 22
Market access for goods: A Uruguay Round summary for developing country exporters 1/1995 p. 4
Market prospects for dehydrated and dried tropical fruit 1/1995 p. 14
Market research for your export operations: Part II – conducting primary market research 1/1995 p. 16
Marketing technical consultancy services 1/1995 p. 22
Cost management: key to competing in foreign markets 4/1994 p. 31
Trade efficiency: key role of business information 3/1994 p. 4
Market research for your export operations: Part I – Using secondary sources of research 3/1994 p. 22
Helping small and medium-size firms to enter export markets 2/1994 p. 4
Ensuring quality in spice exports: example of India 2/1994 p. 14
Handicraft exports: some suggestions for successful marketing 2/1994 p. 16
Tropical nuts: strong demand in the United Kingdom 2/1994 p. 24
Fruit and vegetable exports: new EC quality inspection rules 1/1994 p. 22
Dehydrated vegetables: a market to watch in the future 1/1994 p. 26
Least developed countries: basic information for export marketing 4/1993 p. 8
Market information at your fingertips 4/1993 p. 12
New marketing opportunities in the Russian Federation 4/1993 p. 18
Multinational generic promotion: a cost-effective approach 3/1993 p. 4
Promoting intraregional trade: a strategic approach for developing countries 3/1993 p. 14
Leather goods: attractive exports for developing countries 3/1993 p. 22
Rubberwood: an export that conserves the environment 2/1993 p. 4
Quality management systems: guidelines for export companies 2/1993 p. 10
Preparing for export marketing 2/1993 p. 16

The EC's new system for ensuring product quality 1/1993 p. 10
Prospects for cephalopods bright in the U.S. market 1/1993 p. 14
Import channels in France 1/1993 p. 18
Favourable outlook for exports of imitation jewellery 1/1993 p. 22
Using suitable packaging for exports of floricultural products 4/1992 p. 4
Marketing in Europe: know the business customs 4/1992 p. 10
Spices: trends on the world market 4/1992 p. 14
Market outlook for selected beekeeping products 4/1992 p. 24
The international coffee trade: developing an export strategy 3/1992 p. 4
Silk goods. selling to the Japanese market 3/1992 p. 10
Processed wood products: the challenging U.S. market 2/1992 p. 10
Promoting exports to Europe – Part II: Using trade fairs and advertising 2/1992 p. 16
Prospects in European market for culinary herbs 1/1992 p. 4
Promoting exports to Europe – Part I: Using product literature and sales trips 1/1992 p. 10

Packaging, export
Exporting furniture: getting the packaging right 1/1996 p. 8
The Zimbabwe Association of Packaging: contributing to export promotion 4/1995 p. 10
Using suitable packaging for exports of floricultural products 4/1992 p. 4

Publications
Promoting exports to Europe – Part I: Using product literature and sales trips 1/1992 p. 10

Quality management
The new ISO 14000 series: what exporters should know 3/1996 p. 16
Introducing the ecolabelling concept: experience of Colombia 3/1995 p. 8
Meeting eco-requirements for export: example of Indian textiles 3/1995 p. 12
Quality requirements for textiles and clothing in Europe 2/1995 p. 4
Ensuring quality in spice exports: example of India 2/1994 p. 14
Fruit and vegetable exports: new EC quality inspection rules 1/1994 p. 22
The Bureau of Indian Standards: assistance to the country's exporters 3/1993 p. 8
Quality management systems: guidelines for export companies 2/1993 p. 10
The EC's new system for ensuring product quality 1/1993 p. 10
Measures for ensuring quality conformance in imports 2/1992 p. 22
Achieving suitable export quality in processed food products 1/1992 p. 16

Services of governments
Least developed countries: basic information for export marketing 4/1993 p. 8

Trade efficiency
Trade efficiency: key role of business information 3/1994 p. 4

Trade information services
Trade efficiency: key role of business information 3/1994 p. 4
Market research for your export operations: Part I – Using secondary sources of research 3/1994 p. 22
Market information at your fingertips 4/1993 p. 12

Trade procedures
Setting up an export credit insurance agency 3/1996 p. 4
The new ISO 14000 series: what exporters should know 3/1996 p. 16
Uruguay Round: The General Agreement on Trade in Services 3/1996 p. 20
Business aspects of the Uruguay Round 2/1996 p. 6
Preparing for your business negotiations 2/1996 p. 20
The Uruguay Round: implications for business managers 1/1996 p. 14
The Uruguay Round: new approach for the textiles and clothing sector 4/1995 p. 3
Negotiations for export business: elements for success 4/1995 p. 20
Market access for goods: A Uruguay Round summary for developing country exporters 1/1995 p. 4
Towards paperless international trade: EDI and EDIFACT 3/1991 p. 10
Insuring coffee shipments for export 2/1991 p. 4
Negotiating strategies: the question of price 2/1991 p. 10
Techniques for monitoring and administering import contracts 2/1991 p. 20

Trade promotion organizations
The basic functions of national trade promotion organizations 3/1992 p. 18
Trade promotion organizations: a variety of approaches 2/1992 p. 4

Trade promotion techniques
Setting up an export credit insurance agency 3/1996 p. 4
Why national export promotion 2/1996 p. 10
Analyzing international demand for your country's products 2/1996 p. 24
The Zimbabwe Association of Packaging: contributing to export promotion 4/1995 p. 10
Trade promotion in Germany: the BfAI 3/1995 p. 20
How chambers can generate income to expand their trade services 2/1994 p. 10
An innovative approach to export financing 4/1993 p. 4
Multinational generic promotion: a cost-effective approach 3/1993 p. 4
The Bureau of Indian Standards: assistance to the country's exporters 3/1993 p. 8
Promoting intraregional trade: a strategic approach for developing countries 3/1993 p. 14
Export production villages: Sri Lanka's novel approach 1/1993 p. 4
Evaluating trade promotions 3/1992 p. 12
The basic functions of national trade promotion organizations 3/1992 p. 18
Promoting exports to Europe – Part II: Using trade fairs and advertising 2/1992 p. 16
Promoting exports to Europe – Part I: Using product literature and sales trips 1/1992 p. 10

Training
Managing training evaluation in trade promotion 4/1994 p. 4
Using marketing techniques to finance training institutions 2/1994 p. 20
Assessing requirements for developing your training capacity 4/1993 p. 22
Using business practitioners in the classroom: some do's and don'ts 3/1993 p. 26
Analyzing export training needs for company staff 2/1993 p. 20
Mexico's Institute of Technical Training: an innovative approach 4/1992 p. 16
The Ghana Export School: success with minimum investment 1/1992 p. 20

Uruguay Round
Uruguay Round: The General Agreement on Trade in Services 3/1996 p. 20
Business aspects of the Uruguay Round 2/1996 p. 6
The Uruguay Round: implications for business managers 1/1996 p. 14
The Uruguay Round: new approach for the textiles and clothing sector 4/1995 p. 3
Market access for goods: A Uruguay Round summary for developing country exporters 1/1995 p. 4
The Final Act of the Uruguay Round: A summary 1/1994 p. 4

Products and services

Beekeeping products
Market outlook for selected beekeeping products 4/1992 p. 24

Cephalopods
Prospects for cephalopods bright in the U.S. market 1/1993 p. 14

Coffee
New developments in the international coffee trade 1/1996 p. 4
The international coffee trade: developing an export strategy 3/1992 p. 4

Flowers
Using suitable packaging for exports of floricultural products 4/1992 p. 4

Footwear
Marketing leather footwear: suggestions for new exporters 2/1995 p. 10

Fruit
Tropical fruit products: a well established market 3/1996 p. 10
Market prospects for dehydrated and dried tropical fruit 1/1995 p. 14
Fruit and vegetable exports: new EC quality inspection rules 1/1994 p. 22

Fruit juices
Dynamic markets for fruit juices in Asia 4/1995 p. 24
A promising market for fruit juices: central and eastern Europe 3/1995 p. 16

Handicrafts
Handicraft exports: some suggestions for successful marketing 2/1994 p. 16

Herbs
Prospects in European market for culinary herbs 1/1992 p. 4

Imitation jewellery
Favourable outlook for exports of imitation jewellery 1/1993 p. 22

Jute
Multinational generic promotion: a cost-effective approach 3/1993 p. 4

Leather
Leather goods: attractive exports for developing countries 3/1993 p. 22

Nuts
Tropical nuts: strong demand in the United Kingdom 2/1994 p. 24

Processed food
Dehydrated vegetables: a market to watch in the future 1/1994 p. 26
Achieving suitable export quality in processed food products 1/1992 p. 16

Rubber products
Expanding international market for rubber products 3/1996 p. 26

Silk
Silk goods: selling to the Japanese market 3/1992 p. 10

Sisal
Multinational generic promotion: a cost-effective approach 3/1993 p. 4

Spices
Trends in the international spice trade 2/1996 p. 14
Ensuring quality in spice exports: example of India 2/1994 p. 14
Multinational generic promotion: a cost-effective approach 3/1993 p. 4
Spices: trends on the world market 4/1992 p. 14

Tea
Multinational generic promotion: a cost-effective approach 3/1993 p. 4

Technical consulting services
Marketing technical consultancy services 1/1995 p. 22

Textiles and clothing
The Uruguay Round: new approach for the textiles and clothing sector 4/1995 p. 3
Meeting eco-requirements for export: example of Indian textiles 3/1995 p. 12
Quality requirements for textiles and clothing in Europe 2/1995 p. 4

Toys
Imports play a key role in U.K. toy sales 4/1995 p. 14

Vegetables
Fruit and vegetable exports: new EC quality inspection rules 1/1994 p. 22
Dehydrated vegetables: a market to watch in the future 1/1994 p. 26

Wood products
Exporting furniture: getting the packaging right 1/1996 p. 8
Rubberwood: an export that conserves the environment 2/1993 p. 4
Processed wood products: the challenging U.S. market 2/1992 p. 10

Geographic

Africa
Promoting intraregional trade: a strategic approach for developing countries 3/1993 p. 14

Asia
Dynamic markets for fruit juices in Asia 4/1995 p. 24

China
Selling to China: which import channels 1/1996 p. 12

Colombia
Introducing the ecolabelling concept: experience of Colombia 3/1995 p. 8

Europe
A promising market for fruit juices: central and eastern Europe 3/1995 p. 16
Quality requirements for textiles and clothing in Europe 2/1995 p. 4
Marketing in Europe: know the business customs 4/1992 p. 10
Promoting exports to Europe – Part II: Using trade fairs and advertising 2/1992 p. 16
Prospects in European market for culinary herbs 1/1992 p. 4
Promoting exports to Europe – Part I: Using product literature and sales trips 1/1992 p. 10

European Union
Fruit and vegetable exports: new EC quality inspection rules 1/1994 p. 22

Exporting services

The EC's new system for ensuring product quality 1/1993 p. 10

France
Least developed countries: basic information for export marketing 4/1993 p. 8
Import channels in France 1/1993 p. 18

Germany
Trade promotion in Germany: the BfAI 3/1995 p. 20

Ghana
The Ghana Export School: success with minimum investment 1/1992 p. 20

India
Meeting eco-requirements for export: example of Indian textiles 3/1995 p. 12
Ensuring quality in spice exports: example of India 2/1994 p. 14

The Bureau of Indian Standards: assistance to the country's exporters 3/1993 p. 8

Japan
Silk goods: selling to the Japanese market 3/1992 p. 10

Lesotho
An innovative approach to export financing 4/1993 p. 4

Mexico
Mexico's Institute of Technical Training: an innovative approach 4/1992 p. 16

Poland
Poland: export prospects for developing countries 2/1995 p. 17

Russian Federation
New marketing opportunities in the Russian Federation 4/1993 p. 18

Sri Lanka
Export production villages: Sri Lanka's novel approach 1/1993 p. 4

Swaziland
An innovative approach to export financing 4/1993 p. 4

United Kingdom
Imports play a key role in U.K. toy sales 4/1995 p. 14
Tropical nuts: strong demand in the United Kingdom 2/1994 p. 24

United States
Prospects for cephalopods bright in the U.S. market 1/1993 p. 14
Processed wood products: the challenging U.S. market 2/1992 p. 10

Zimbabwe
The Zimbabwe Association of Packaging: contributing to export promotion 4/1995 p . 10